Ephesians 3; Lord's Day 9

I BELIEVE IN THE FATHER OF BOTH JESUS AND ME

- 1. The concept.
 - 1. The name "Father" conveys a wonderful, most intimate and close relationship.
 - 2. The Fatherhood of God has its beginning within God's own being as the Triune God.
 - 1. God does not become Father, even as He does not become God.
 - 2. Secondly, the Triune God is Father of the Mediator. This brings outside of God what is within Himself.
 - 3. To reveal His Fatherhood outside of Himself God created the heavens and the earth.
 - 4. Of whom is God Father? Who are God's children?
- 2. The reality is that God is my Father.
 - 1. This is true only through and because of His Fatherhood of the Mediator, Jesus Christ.
 - 2. How does God become the spiritual Father of the elect so they are His adopted children? Four steps.
 - 1. First, He "predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ (Eph. 1:5; Rom. 8:29).
 - 2. In the fulness of time God sent His Son to redeem us, that we might receive the adoption of sons (Gal. 4:4,5).
 - 3. Then God's Son gave His Spirit (the Spirit of adoption) to testify with our spirits that we are God's children (Rom. 8:15,16).
 - 4. Our adoption is to be fully realized when we are glorified in heaven (Romans 8:23).
- 3. There are five implications which arise from this relationship.
 - 1. God's Fatherhood is particular and definite.
 - 2. Our Father provides us with all things necessary for our body and soul (Matt. 6:32; Phil. 4:19).
 - 3. I can rely on my Father in every circumstances of life.
 - 4. Before this heavenly Father let us "bend the knee" (Eph. 3:14).
 - 5. May earthly fathers learn what it means to be a father from Him.
