GOD'S BLESSING AT BAAL-PEOR

- 1. Abominable sin.
 - 1. Balaam was the devil s willing instrument to lay before Israel this temptation (Num. 31:16; Rev. 2:14).
 - 1. After his attempts to have God curse Israel failed, he sought to make Israel sin and become curseable to God.
 - 2. Balaam s advice was that they be swallowed up spiritual through the lust of their flesh (Hosea 9:10).
 - 2. The real nature of this sin is that of Israel joining themselves to Baal (3a).
 - 3. The plot seems successful. Four evidences.
 - 1. First, there was the exercise of lusts for pleasures of the flesh.
 - 2. Many of the leaders and princes in Israel were singled out as guilty (4).
 - 3. A great many were guilty as implied in the number killed in the plague: 24,000.
 - 4. The sin was openly committed by a prince of Simeon (Zimri) and a Midianite princess (Cozbi) (6).
- 2. Jehovah s blessing remains executed.
 - 1. Above all, God s blessing remains on His people.
 - 2. God s blessing in shown in His anger (3b).
 - 1. God commands the sinful leaders to be disciplined (executed) by means of public church discipline (judges).
 - 2. 23,000 (I Cor. 10:8) of the common people were killed in a disciplinary plague.
 - 3. Above all God s blessing is seen in the zeal He gave to Phinehas.
 - 1. This grandson of Aaron hastened forward to inflict just and public punishment on Zimri and Cozbi.
 - 2. God evaluation is that He is pleased with it (Psalm 106:30,31).
- 3. Good lessons are to be learned.
 - 1. Paul sets this incident before the Corinthians and us as a warning to deter from the sin of fornication (I Cor. 10:8).
 - 2. The specific identification of Zimri and Cozbi gives them perpetual infamy.
 - 3. The reference to the zeal of Phinehas sets that up for an example of zeal for the Lord.
 - 4. God s blessing never leaves His people; it always rests on us, for it is unconditional!!!
